PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

Fall is in the air and I am enjoying it immensely! The cooler, cloudy days are a welcome change from our dry and hot summer.

We were all surprised with our "challenge" from Suzanne with the color purple and the fat quarter grab bag. I don't know about you but I am definitely challenged with my drawn piece. I had to put my thinking cap on and it's not working very well.

I spoke with Jane Savaria regarding the Library and how the process is working. Since we don't seem to have very much enthusiasm for the current process, we decided to attach a list of all books to the newsletter and you can peruse it and then ask Jane for the book that interests you. We think this might work better.

The Pioneer Room seemed to work well for the most part. We have decided on a new room set up to better accommodate everyone's requests. Parking was an issue which we can't control but I can give you a heads up in the future as to what to expect on guild day.

I think you all will want to attend the September Guild meeting to see Margaret Noah present her trunk show. I have had the pleasure of watching one in the past and it is ever so entertaining.

Friendship Quilters of Western Colorado
Guild Meeting
Friendship Hall-Pioneer Room
August 27, 2018

The meeting was called to order by Ginny Frame at 9:30 am. 41 members and 2 visitors were present. Katya Holden, who will be doing the class this afternoon, was introduced. Ginny asked for feed back concerning the room arrangement of the meeting room.

August meeting minutes were approved as printed in the newsletter. Treasurers report was given. The prior balance was $9,631.68 with an income of $30.00 and expenses of $982.11-class expenses and hospitality reimbursement, leaving a balance of $8,679.57. Ginny asked if small groups had room for new members. Applique group is not closed, Cyndi Holman will get Scrappers going again and Suzanne Hebert will start up Woolies in October or November. A nominating committee was selected-Peggy King will head it. The present President and Vice Presidents will remain for another year. Melody Pozerl volunteered to fill the treasurer position leaving only the secretary position to fill. All to be voted on at the November meeting. Jan Daoust volunteered to take on the newsletter for 2019. Myrtle Hogue asked to have someone take over the Hope West quilt in 2019-Leah Morgan volunteered. Sue Palmer volunteered to take over Sharing Ministries from Pat Huff.

Announcements: Colorado Quilt Council will have their next meeting in Hotchkiss. Slackers will meet this month-the 5th Thursday-at the City Market Starbucks.

Newsletter: September deadline will be the 14th.

Caring Quilts: No quilts were received for this month.

Historian: Karla Gilbert reported the member photo directory is ready to print. It was moved and seconded to print 50 copies at this time and members will pay $2.50 each for a copy.

Sunshine: No report.

Quilts of Valor: September 11th will be the next sew day at Cimarron Creek Community Center. Contact Sue Palmer for information.

Black Canyon Quilt Show: The last board meeting was a wrap up meeting for the quilt show. Each committee chairperson gave a report and recommendations for next year. Cyndi Homan thanked the board and volunteers for all their work. Cyndi stressed the need to have a quorum at the next board meeting to vote for officers for 2019 and asked members to come at least as long as to vote. That meeting will be September 15th at the Centennial Room downtown.

Hospitality: Brenda Burke asked for volunteers for snacks, set up and clean up for the next meeting.

Hope West Quilt: Th quilt for September will be by Ludene Smith.

Library Quilt: The September quilt will be by Ginny Frame.

Sharing Ministries: No report.

Chinle: Sue Sharman was in Chinle July 2nd to do the kids projects and had a good time. Hopes to return sometime this fall.

Mystery quilt: November will be to show the finished quilts.

Programs: Still have a few Storm at Sea patterns for $10. Margaret Noah will do a trunk show and a class in September. The Challenge was introduced-the main color is purple, wall size, need to use the fat quarter that was drawn and save a scrap to pin to the back of the quilt, anyone can quilt it, it will be due in November.

Library: Jane Savaria reported on embellishing and image transfer books that are in the library.

The next Friendship guild board meeting will be at Melody Pozerl's home at 9:30 am September 5th.

PROGRAMS/EDUCATION

WHAT'S COMING UP!

SEPTEMBER 27 GUILD MEETING

PROGRAM FOR SEPTEMBER - MARGARET NOAH trunk show & program! FUN, FUN, FUN!!

NOTE: 2018 Quilt Retreat -- We will have a Retreat meeting for all going immediately following the September Guild meeting. Please plan to attend since we'll be discussing carpooling, food, sleeping, etc.

OCTOBER 25 GUILD MEETING

I originally thought we would sew for Hilltop House; however, I was asked to consider sewing for Caring Quilts since there is a great need and represents one of the important tasks Friendship Guild takes on each year. The Guild will provide fabric & batting and all you have to do is provide woman-power (which we all know is the best power in the world)!

We will gather after our October 25 Guild meeting and sew away. If you don't want to bring your machine - you can rip, iron or motivate. I appreciate all of you who join us in this worthwhile cause.

We hope to have kits made to make your sewing easier - no thinking required (well, maybe a little)!

Thanks, Suzanne

MYSTERY QUILT UPDATE

FYI - The Mystery Quilt reveal will take place at our December Guild meeting. Be sure to have your quilt ready to share!

Storm @ Sea Pattern -- We still have 3 patterns left over from Debbie Davis' class (with both lap & queen size quilt designs). If you'd like to buy a pattern, please see Suzanne or Marilyn. $10.00/pattern
