President's Ponderings

I'm sending you a picture of the members present at our 14th anniversary. Will you put it in the newsletter as a full-size sheet so anyone who wants can print it.? (Editor's note: it will be sent as a separate forward.)

May's refreshments will be provided by Nancy Weese, Carolyn Ray, and Joanie Ewing.

Set up will be Nancy and Linda Jolley-Richards. Nancy will do clean up.

June's refreshments will be brought to us by Norma, Janet Metcalf, and Sheryl Wardlow. These fine ladies will also do set-up and clean up.

Many thanks to everyone who brought food for the soup and salad bar last month. It was a wonderful selection. Food and friends just go together so well.

Barbara

May Program

May program: MONTROSE CENTER FOR THE ARTS will give us information on their organization.

Sandy Martin will be our guest speaker. Check out their website at mc4arts.net.

In June we will meet some new people.....details to follow.

Quilt Retreat

We still have room for a few more at the Quilt Retreat. Dates for the retreat are May 18th and 19th at the DMEA starting on Friday at 9:30 a.m. Cost is $15.00 for both days. I still need a few more to sign up to help. Sign up sheets will be at the Guild meeting.

See you then, Wendy. Call if you have questions 249-2816 or 596-6636.

One of these days...we've all said it. I'm saying it again. One of these days I'll learn how to turn your attachments into our newsletter, but for now, look for two extras being sent your way—the wonderful annual picture compliments of Barb, and a great opportunity offered by Friendship Guild that is passed along by Jane Nannestad.
